When it was refurbished in 2018, Independence of the Seas became the first ship in Royal Caribbean's fleet to get the Royal Amplified treatment, which added the best in cruise entertainment and amenities. That means that you can look forward to fun-filled days, action-packed nights, and delicious food while you cruise the Caribbean. Thanks to the ship's seemingly endless list of things to do at sea, there is something for every cruiser, which is why Indy is consistently recognized as one of the best ships for families. The buzziest additions to the ship are definitely the theme park-like amenities, which include dual racing waterslides and SkyPad, which is part virtual reality game and part trampoline bungee. Cruisers will appreciate the number and variety of watering holes that range from Champagne to Playmakers Bar and Arc. DON'T MISS THE SHIP...
